

CROWNS & MACES

Three Crowns, No Maces!

👑 CROWN to the Chancellery, Government House, and the Directorate of History and Heritage, Ottawa, for their approval of the new South West Asia Service Medal which features The Queen on the obverse. This medal is awarded to members of HM Canadian Forces who serve in the Gulf and Afghanistan.

👑 CROWN to the publicists of the Canadian Navy for the recruiting poster they handed out during the Canada Day weekend in Halifax and other cities. It showed the various ships and aircraft of the fleet, under the sizeable title “The Ships of Her Majesty’s Canadian Fleet” (with a similar title on the French side). How interesting that the Navy realizes that, in minds of potential recruits, there is considerable prestige and honour attached to serving the Crown.

👑 CROWN to Queen’s University, which has agreed to print in its Convocation Programme the words to the Royal Anthem in the two Official Languages.
